FINAL JUDGMENT

JED S. RAKOFF, U.S.D.J.

On August 8, 2008, following trial, the jury returned a verdict (attached hereto), finding defendant not liable to plaintiff on plaintiff's claim for breach of contract and finding plaintiff liable to defendant in the sum of $57,000 on defendant's counter-claim for breach of contract. All other claims in this case had previously been dismissed by the Court, either prior to, during, or at the end of trial, with prejudice, except for defendant's counter-claim for an accounting, which was dismissed without prejudice to defendant's renewing the claim on a post-judgment motion pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59 within the time period set forth in that Rule.

Accordingly, final judgment is hereby entered awarding defendant Daniel Zanger the sum of $57,000 (plus post-judgment interest at the prescribed federal rate) from plaintiff Independent Asset Management, LLC.

SO ORDERED.
